- «UNICOS»,* Da.te Danza

"Únicos" it is the depth of the forest, within which we build, with time and love, our inner selves as if they were works of art. It is also the process of identity-building in which two children meet and recognise one another for who they are: unique. When do we cease to be who we are? How much weight does our social, political or cultural identity carry? Are we what others say we are?
