FEATURE FILM: CONTIGO, CONTIGO Y SIN MI" direcció Amaya Villar Navascúes. Nominated for Goya Awards to the best documentary. Carlo d'Ursi, producer, will speak MONTGÓ FILMS. Esp. 2023. 86 min. Spanish. Sinopsi. Sinopsi. Amaya has filmed the four romantic relationships that have marked her life. They span the last 20 years, from her first infatuation at 18 to her current age of 38.

Faced with the desire to become a mother, she writes an audiovisual letter to her future children. This takes us on a journey into her past, unraveling the phases of love, the challenge of long-distance relationships, and the clash between hopes and frustrations or guilt.

The film combines documentary and animation, the real and intimate, with the expressive.

An apparently personal and intimate film, where the protagonist's turn and evolution can also be read from an anthropological or political perspective, reflecting the changing role of women in intimate relationships."

Montgó Films, From its inception, Montgó Films has aimed to contribute to the Alicante film industry, both nationally and internationally. It aspires to be a platform that promotes emerging talents as well as established voices in Valencian cinema. Montgó Films intends to focus on producing high-quality cinematic content that not only entertains but also informs, educates, and enriches
